

Towards beneficial changes

Where the energy sources would be the sun, the wind and the water,
Where the end of life plastics would be managed, controlled and valued,
Where consciences would be focused on the preservation of our oceans,

The “Land and Sea”-based teams of the Race for Water Foundation wish you all the very best for 2019.

