

Newsletter

Dear ,

01 December 2015

This issue marks an exciting milestone for us as The Water Network Newsletter turns 1 year old today!

Thanks for your support and feedback which encouraged us to now publish this newsletter bimonthly to bring you real time trends, technology, news, and case studies across the water sector.

It is highly remarkable that our one-year-old newsletter reaches 110,000 global water professionals and is growing constantly. Feel free to forward to your colleagues.

To feature your technology, company, project, or case study in the newsletter - talk to us today.

Kind regards,
